

This is absolutely ridiculous! Why even waste our tax money trying to keep innovation down and silence free speech. Satellite radio is great. Regular radio is also great. Local TV stations did not go under when satellite TV came out, local radio stations won't either. Do not take away our ability to choose what we want to listen too.